AlsoOpening

JOY DIVISION (M) 96 minutes

NIGHT (PG) 78 mins

More than 10 years after he explored Eternity, director Lawrence Johnston concentrates on the hours immediately after sunset. The result is a cinematic tribute to the mysteries of the night, a time when even familiar surroundings are made strange. Shooting in Sydney, Melbourne and rural Australia, the filmmakers interview a range of night owls. Their thoughts are as diverse as the characters are themselves. Hypnotically beautiful
